

UNESCO Chair in Sustainable Water Services (UNECWAS)
at Tampere University of Technology

1st UNECWAS Seminar
Thursday, 20 Sept, 2012 at TUT
Venue: TUT, Time: at 13.00 hours, Festia Small auditorium no. 1

Programme:

13.00 Opening of the Seminar

The Role of UNESCO in Science, Miguel DORIA, Responsible officer for UNESCO water-related Chairs and office of the Director, Paris

TUT views on International Collaboration in Education and Science, Vice Dean, Prof. Jaakko Puhakka (on behalf of the President Markku Kivikoski) TUT

Our Integrated World, Prof. Tapio Markkanen, Chair, Finnish National Commission for UNESCO

Challenges of Water Education and Management in Southern African Region, Prof. Damas A. Mashauri, Polytechnic of Namibia

Education, Research and Capacity Building for Water Services, UNECWAS Chairholder, Adjunct Prof. Tapio S. Katko, TUT

14.30 Coffee

15.00-16.30 Panel: "Principles of and ways towards more sustainable water services"

Chair: Kai Kaatra, Director, Head of Water Resources Unit, Ministry of Forestry and Agriculture

Carol Fort, Associate Dean, Senior Lecturer, Flinders University, Australia, IWHA Vice president

Ulla Hakanen, First Secretary (Water and Sanitation, Sustainable Development) Ministry for Foreign Affairs, Unit for International Environmental Policy

Damas A. Mashauri, Prof., Polytechnic of Namibia

Susanne Balslev Nielsen, Prof., Danish Technical University

Osmo Seppälä, Dr., Managing Director, Finnish Water Utilities Association (FIWA)

16.30 Snacks and informal greetings

Contact and confirmation by 14th Sept, 2012: Pekka E. Pietilä and Vuokko Kurki:

pekka.e.pietila@tut.fi, vuokko.kurki@tut.fi

tel. 040-832 3112 (Pietilä)